CO-PETITIONERS' NOTICE OF SERVING FINAL DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

Co-Petitioners have served upon each other a Final Declaration of Disclosure which sets forth the identity of all assets in which Co-Petitioners individually or jointly have an interest, to the best of their knowledge and belief, regardless of the characterization of the asset. These assets include, but are not limited to, any real and personal property in which Co-Petitioners individually or jointly have any interest, regardless of its nature or however or whenever it was acquired; whether the property is tangible or intangible; whether it is currently existing or contingent; and whether title is in the name of the Wife, the Husband, or both.

To the best of Co-Petitioners' knowledge and belief, the listing of liabilities set forth in the Final Declaration identifies all of the liabilities for which the Co-Petitioners may be responsible individually or jointly, regardless of the characterization of the liability, with the possible exception of bills which are generally paid on a monthly basis. The listed liabilities include any debts for which Co-Petitioners are liable, regardless of however or whenever acquired, and whether the debt or obligation is currently existing or contingent. Those debts which encumber a particular property have also been identified in the Final Disclosure.

The value of assets and liabilities as stated in the Final Disclosure may fluctuate over time and the information provided sets forth value as of approximately (insert date) _____, 20____, except where otherwise specifically noted.

Co-Petitioners' income or expenses are declared in the Final Declaration which sets forth the average projected monthly income and living expenses of Co-Petitioners. Co-Petitioners' expenses are estimated based upon historical information and estimates as to projections for the future. Expenses and income are anticipated to vary over time. Co-Petitioners anticipate that their income and/or expenses may change due to distributions between parties resulting from the dissolution of their marriage, market fluctuations, possible changes in Co-Petitioners' employment or related income, and other potential factors.
